

Asian Learning Center of Indiana
Resource for Asian Studies

Organization Name	About	Language Training Services	Curriculum Resources?	Teacher Training Services	Country Focus	Target Age Group	Location	Cost
Asia for Educators, Columbia University http://afe.easia.columbia.edu/	This Columbia University website, an initiative of the East Asian Curriculum Project and the Project on Asia in the Core Curriculum , is an inexhaustible resource for teaching the arts, languages, literatures, histories, and cultures of Asia.	No Language Services	Provides links to lesson plans: East Asia from a geographic perspective, timelines, maps, primary sources, cartoons/illustrations, and recommended websites. Includes a searchable database of teaching materials.	No teacher training services	Cambodia China, Japan, Mongolia, Myanmar, North Korea Philippines Singapore, South Korea, Thailand, and Vietnam.	Teachers	Online only	Online lesson plans are free.
Asia Society http://asiasociety.org/education/resources-schools	Offers various resources and programs for schools looking to expand on their own Asian curriculums	No Language Services	Elementary lesson plans: (Chinese inventions, Lunar year in Vietnam, Trade along the Silk Roads, etc.) Secondary lesson plans (development of Chinese language, Indian Mathematical achievements, Building an Empire, etc)	No Teacher Training Services	Asia	Teachers and students	N/A	Online lesson plans are free.
Asian Studies Center - University of Pittsburgh http://www.ucis.pitt.edu/asc/outreach/prek16.html	Pre-K through 16 Educational Outreach focuses on teacher-training workshops , early childhood educational programming, and educational events for middle and high school students.	No Language Services	Lending library for educators with an assortment of books, tapes, videos, artifact lending kits, language programs, and curriculum guides, films, animated films, books, and lesson plans.	The Asian Studies Center coordinates a number of continuing education workshops about Asia for K-16 faculty.	Asia	Teachers / Middle and high school students	Pittsburgh, PA	Free to lend items from the library.
Center for South Asia Outreach, University of Wisconsin-Madison http://www.southasiaoutreach.wisc.edu/about.htm	The Center assists teachers and community leaders in designing programs focused on the arts, civilizations, cultures, geographies, history, and languages of South Asia.	No Language Services	Lesson plans on South Asian culture, geography, history, technology	Offers teachers' workshops, seminars, scholarship access grants, and other opportunities for learning about South Asia	South Asia India	Teachers	Madison, WI	Online lesson plans are free.
Chinese Flagship Program http://k12chineseflagship.osu.edu/	Cooperates with partners in Ohio and other states to establish effective Chinese language programs by developing three sectors of resources: curriculum, teacher training, and technology.	Chinese	Lesson plans on Chinese culture, Electronic resources	Provides short-term training, continuous professional development	China	K-12 teachers	Columbus, OH	Online lesson plans are free.

Asian Learning Center of Indiana
Resource for Asian Studies

Classroom Indonesia (K-12) Cornell University, Southeast Asia Program http://seap.einaudi.cornell.edu/resources_for_educators	SEAP Outreach provides programming such as classroom visits, cultural events, and activities for after school and enrichment programs. They can mount small exhibits on Southeast Asian topics for schools and libraries and arrange for speakers for community and business organizations.	No Language Services	Elementary, middle school and high school lesson plans on culture, history, and religion. They also provide "explorer boxes" and audiovisual material.	The Southeast Asia Program Outreach office offers a number of teacher training workshops and professional development opportunities throughout the school year and into the summer. Available locally in NY.	Laos, Indonesia, Thailand, Burma Cambodia, Singapore Vietnam Burma/Myanmar	K-12 teachers	Ithaca, NY	All online lesson plans are available for free.
Consortium for the Study of the Asias University of Minnesota http://asias.umn.edu/outreach/resources.html	The website offers resources that have been collected from past professional development programs offered to educators. Included are curriculum ideas, bibliography of readings, lectures, slide presentations, and other activities created and utilized from educational enhancement opportunities.	Arabic and Hindi online courses	Korea past & present history lesson plans	CSA faculty collaborate with the Institute for Global Studies to provide workshops, professional development courses, language education, and week-long institutes for K-16 teachers.	Korea	K-16 teachers	Minneapolis, MN	Lesson plans available online for free.
East Asian Studies Center The Ohio State University http://easc.osu.edu/teaching_asia_lesson.html	EASC offers numerous professional development opportunities for K-12 educators, including our intensive "Teaching about Asia" seminars, graduate-level courses, summer institutes, "passport" programs, and more.	No Language Services	Lesson plans on China, Japan, Korea and East Asia in various categories: art and architecture, culture, economics, education, general, geography, history, language, literature, politics and religion.	Offers various professional development opportunities in Ohio	China, Japan Korea East Asia	K-12 teachers	Columbus, Ohio	Lesson plans are available for free online.
Global East Asian Studies Center Duke University http://web.duke.edu/apsi/events/outreach/Resources_for_Teaching_about_East_Asia.html	APSI's outreach program is designed to provide cultural resources about East Asia to educational institutions, community groups and the general public.	No Language Services	Provides resources for teaching about Japan, China, and Korea, as well as links to language teaching and audio/visual materials. Lesson plans are provided for elementary, middle and high school levels.	K-12 teacher workshops are held at the University. They are led by East Asian experts from a number of fields who specialize in China, Japan or Korea.	China, Japan, Korea	K-12 teachers	Durham, NC	Videos and artifacts available for loan for free. Lesson plans are available for free download.
Indiana University East Asian Studies Center http://www.indiana.edu/~easc/outreach/educators/index.shtml	Committed to meeting the professional development needs of teachers and to promoting the study of East Asia among K-12 students. They offer many classroom resources as well as enriching programs.	No Language Services	East Asian Literature lesson plans, Tibet and China lesson plans. A storytelling program that helps children (Preschool-Grade 6) explore East Asia through folktales and crafts. Bibliography of resources on East Asia and a video lending library.	Annual workshops for K-12 teachers of Chinese, Japanese, and Korean. NCTA Teaching about Asia seminars.	East Asia, China, Japan, Korea Taiwan	K-12 educators and students	Bloomington, Indiana	Online lesson plans are free. Lending library resources are free.

Asian Learning Center of Indiana
Resource for Asian Studies

Kids Web Japan http://web-japan.org/kidsweb/about/index.html	The website introduces Japan to schoolchildren aged between 10-14 who live in other countries. The site can be used as a supplementary source of information for school lessons on Japan.	No Language Services	It has several resources such as: games, interesting articles about Japanese culture, quizzes, etc	No teacher training services	Japan	Children ages 10-14.	Website only	Website is free to use.
National Consortium for Teaching About Asia http://www.nctasia.org/online_resources/index.html	NCTA is a collaboration of the East Asian Studies programs of seven national institutions. It offers seminars in different delivery methods (face-to-face, online and blended seminars), mini-courses, and webinars.	No Language Services	N/A	Online, face-to-face and blended seminars	East-Asia	Elementary and secondary school teachers	Nationwide	Free online resources and Simulcasts.
Outreach World http://www.outreachworld.org/	An international education resource for teachers.	No Language Services	Provides some links to instructional materials.	Provides links to instructional materials for teachers and event dates for workshops, conferences and professional development opportunities offered locally, regionally, nationally and overseas.	Asia	Teachers	Online Only	Online lesson plans are free.
Stanford Program on International and Cross Cultural Understanding http://spice.stanford.edu/docs/teaching_resources_on_korea/	The Stanford Program on International and Cross-Cultural Education (SPICE) serves as a bridge between Stanford University and K-14 schools by developing multidisciplinary curriculum materials on international themes.	No Language Services	Set of teaching resources and curriculum tools on the culture, history and contemporary issues of Korea and China.	SPICE, in cooperation with NCTA, is offering a series of seminars for middle school and high school social studies, world literature, and language arts teachers.	China, Korea	K-14 teachers	Stanford, CA	Curriculum guides on Korea and China are available at a cost that ranges from $35 to $85
Teach India Project http://www.teachindiaproject.org/	The Mission of the Teach India Project is to provide educators with tools and resources for global awareness and multicultural education and to give parents of the Indian Diaspora a cultural literacy resource.	No Language Services	Provides sample lesson plans on how to teach India in the classroom.	Offers professional development opportunities for educators that include workshops, seminars, online forums, travel sponsorships and the creation of teaching kits.	India	Teachers	Burlington, MA	Lesson plans and curriculum guides are available on the website for free. Teaching kits can be ordered online.

Asian Learning Center of Indiana
Resource for Asian Studies

The Korea Society http://www.koreasociety.org/index.php?option=com_docman&Itemid=102	The website offers hundreds of lesson plans and podcasts about Korea, available for free download.	No Language Services	Lesson plans on architecture, arts, music/dance, economics, education, folktales, history, internet, geography, language, Korean War, North/South issues, literature, religion, society/culture	Lectures are available locally in New York.	Korea	Teachers	New York, NY	Lesson plans are available online for free.
The University of Kentucky Asia Center http://www.uky.edu/Centers/Asia/index.php	Provides leadership and coordination for Asian Studies at UK and promoting formal and informal education about Asia on campus, throughout Kentucky, and the region.	No Language Services	Interdisciplinary curriculum in Asian studies.	Professional development for secondary teachers: extending lessons on Japan.	Japan	K-12 teachers	Lexington, KY	Free resources.
University of Colorado at Boulder Program for Teaching East Asia http://www.colorado.edu/CAS/TEA/	Conducts projects designed to enhance and expand teaching and learning about East Asia at the K-12 levels. Specific projects focus on curriculum development, professional development for teachers, and curriculum consultation and reform related to Asia in K-12 education.	No Language Services	Elementary curriculum on Japan, Visualizing Japan in Modern World History, Imagining Japanese History, Other resources for teaching about Japan, China and Korea	Provides annual program of workshops on East Asia throughout the school year	China, Japan, Korea	Teachers	Boulder, CO	There is an initial $50 deposit for loans. All materials are free to loan. Borrower must pay shipping costs.
University of Washington, East Asia Center A Visual Sourcebook of Chinese Civilization http://depts.washington.edu/chinaciv/	The goal of this "visual sourcebook" is to add to the material teachers can use to help their students understand Chinese history, culture, and society.	No Language Services	Teaching resources on ten subject areas: geography, archeology, religion, calligraphy, military technology, painting, homes, gardens, clothing and the graphic arts	No teacher training services	China	Teachers and students	Online only	Lesson plans are free
Windows on Asia Asian Studies Center Michigan State University http://asia.isp.msu.edu/outreach/k12teaching.htm	This site was created by the Asian Studies Center to provide material to assist teachers of all levels (K-12) in integrating Asian themes into their classes. It features teaching modules and links to important web resources.	No Language Services	History, geography, culture, religion. Lesson plans and other resources are available to borrow from the Asian Studies Center.	Teacher training workshops are offered locally in Michigan.	China, Japan, India, Indonesia, Thailand, Burma, Cambodia, Malaysia, The Philippines, Singapore, Vietnam, Brunei, Laos	K-12 teachers	East Lansing, MI	All borrowing of materials is free. There is no clarification on shipping costs.